HUNGARIANS DISAPPEAR LEAVING ALL PROPERTY

Terre Haute, Ind., March 31.—The Jasonville race riot appears at an end. The last of the Hungarians left town Tuesday night, leaving their property behind. Many were naturalized and owned property. Fear of dynamite last night caused the settlement to be guarded. A small shift has gone to work in the mine under guard.

ATTEMPT TO MURDER PHILADELPHIA MAYOR

Philadelphia, Mch 31.—While Mayor Reyburn was in conference this afternoon with several citizens, a man, believed to be a foreigner, attempted to break into the mayor's office. He drew a knife and exclaimed, "I will kill the mayor; he owes me money." The man was overpowered. He is believed to be insane.

J. Collins and Fred Basinger the two railroad men who were identified by Hop Lee as the men who battered down the door of his laundry on lower Railroad avenue and were bound over to the grand jury by Judge Murray have been released from custody today. ## HIGH-O-ME

That's the Way to Pronounce Hyomel, the Money-Back Catarrh Cure.

As doubt exists in the minds of many readers of The Optic, let us say that the above is the proper pronunciation of America's most wonderful catarrh cure. E. G. Murphey is the agent for Hyomel in East Las Vegas, and he will sell you an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomel, and full instructions for use, for only $1.00.

And if it fails to cure acute or chronic catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, croup, hay fever or coughs and colds, he will give you your money back. The person who suffers from catarrh after such an offer as that, must like to snuffle, spit and wheeze, and be generally disgusting.

Read what Mr. Lowe, a respected citizen of Allegan, Mich., says of Hyomel:

"I have used Hyomel for a case of nasal catarrh which had bothered me for a long time. I can say that Hyomel killed the germs of the disease and gave me the much sought and needed relief. From this experience, I know Hyomel to be a reliable remedy, and I give it the praise and recommendation that it deserves."—G. E. Lowe, R. F. D. No. 7, Allegan, Mich., September 19, 1908.

Stiff Neck.

Stiff neck is caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the neck. It is usually confined to one side, or to the back of the neck and one side. While it is often quite painful, quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires internal treatment. When there is no fever and no swelling as in muscular and chronic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Liniment will accomplish more than any internal treatment. For sale by all dealers.

The musical Halls at the Duncan tonight.
